

A GERMAN GENEALOGY RESEARCH SERIES

PRESENTED BY

OHIO CHAPTER OF PALATINES TO AMERICA

AND THE

ASHTABULA COUNTY DISTRICT LIBRARY

And The Ashtabula County Genealogical Society

Saturday June 22, 2019 – 10am-12:30pm

4335 Park Avenue Ashtabula, Ohio – phone 440 997 9341

Guest Speaker Jayne Davis

Jayne Shoots Davis, native of Columbus, Ohio, has been a professional genealogist for 25 years. Genealogy lecturer at the Ohio Historical Center, area genealogical societies, Sr. Centers & retirement communities. 3 time President of the Franklin County Genealogical & Historical Society. "Family Treasure Hunt" 4-H project judge at the Ohio State Fair for 6 years. Member of OGS, Pal-Am Ohio Chapter, NGS, FGS & APG. Graduate of The Ohio State University with a Bachelor of Music Education.

TOPICS Begin Finding Your Roots: Covering research materials

Researching Children Homes: We will cover the history of children's homes, why homes were founded, who founded the homes, the orphan experience, where to look for the records and restrictions to those records.

Ohio Chapter of Palatines to America in conjunction with the Ashtabula Count District Library and Ashtabula County Genealogical Society presents this program as a public service. Everyone is welcome. NO CHARGE.