

A GERMAN GENEALOGICAL RESEARCH SERIES

Presented by

The Ohio Chapter of Palatines to America

And the

Findley-Hancock County Public Library

Saturday September 21, 2019 – 10 am

206 Broadway – Findlay, Ohio 45840

For more information – 419-422-1712

Guest Speaker Nancy Ottman

Nancy is retired Director of HR and Loss Prevention for the JC Penney Co. She has been involved with genealogy research for 30 years. Nancy is a member of the OGS, Pal-Am and the KS Genealogical Society. She has spoken to numerous Genealogical and Historical Societies, and fraternal organizations. Lectured at the Columbus Metro Library, Groveport Madison School District and Palatines to America both Ohio Chapter and National organization. In 2014 she completed a study with the Univ. of NC on American Gravestones and Cemeteries. Nancy was recently published in the “Your Genealogy Today” magazine.

RESEARCHING YOUR GERMAN ROOTS

Topics

10 am Begin Researching German Genealogy

11: 15 am Finding Your German Ancestors Migration to America

Ohio Chapter of Palatines to America in conjunction with Findlay-Hancock County Public Library presents this program as a public service. Everyone is welcome. NO CHARGE

